Mrs. Lois Porter*

The 1978 Annual Staff lovingly and gratefully dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Lois Porter.

Mrs. Porter started teaching in 1912, at age 18, in a one room school called "Happy Hollow." She married in 1916 after four years of teaching. Mrs. Porter raised six children and taught for two years during that time.

She moved to California in 1941. She taught Bible in Released Time Program in Glendale City Schools and fifth grade at Village Christian Schools in Burbank and Sun Valley.

She came to Hesperia in 1964. In 1967 she taught part of a year for Mrs. Broolsma at Hesperia Christian. She continued to teach at H.C.S. in 2nd, 3rd and 4th grades before her retirement in 1972.

Since retiring she has written and directed several Christmas programs at Hesperia Christian School.

If Mrs. Porter had her choice she never would have retired. Teaching children is the joy of her life.

Her first school. Iowa - 1912
